

More Princesses for the Blossom Festival

HERE are three dozen more girls chosen as princesses for National Cherry Blossom Festival here April 2-7.

One princess is selected for each state and territory.

One of them will be selected queen of the festival by the spin of a wheel of fortune. The other princesses will be in her retinue.

The girls will ride on floats in the Festival parade and will appear at the festival shows by the Jefferson Memorial on the Tidal Basin.

Select military personnel will escort them to balls and parties.

THE Greater National Capitol Committee, expecting an especially big crowd this year, is looking for rooms to hold the overflow of tourists.

An office to register rooms available will be opened Monday at 1616 K-st nw.

It will be open from 9 a. m. to 10 p. m. daily thru the tourist rush season.

—Photo by Glogau.
CATHERINE CABELL
Texas

JUDITH MAE KNOBLA
Wisconsin

—Photo by Anton.
MADELAINE FARAH
Oregon

—J. Carroll Studio.
M. GAIL ABERNATHY
Mississippi

GAIL ITSCHNER
Washington State

OVER

—Miller of Washington.
SUSAN HALL
Missouri

—J. Carroll Studio.
WANDA JOHNSON
South Dakota

—Photo by Wings

VIRGINIA chose as princess this year Carol Moore Carruthers, 18, student at Marjorie Webster Junior College. She's from Charlottesville.

—Josef Weber.
MARTHA TODD
Montana

DIANNE MCGOWAN
Rhode Island

JEAN DIBBLE
Nebraska

KAREN GILMORE
Ohio

BARBARA SUTHERLAND
New Jersey

CAROL TOLLEFSON
Nevada

—Carl E. Fontanini.
VIVIAN FRANQUEZ
Guam